Prayer changes things!

If you have found a prophetic word in this book which refers to your country, or one that God has placed on your heart, what are you going to do about it? Far too many of God's people just say "That word is from God" and then forget about it. By our prayers, we can change situations - even whole countries. So if you have been touched by one of these words, then here is a prayer trail you might like to follow:-

- 1. What can you find out about that country? The more you know, the better you will be able to pray.
- 2. What do you feel are the most pressing needs in that country? Begin to pray about them.
- 3. Pray for the government of that country.
- 4. Study the prophetic word, and discern what you think God is saying about that country. What do you think he is saying might happen? Or how does he see the Church, and its responsibility?
- 5. Commit yourself to prayer for at least one year.
6. What can you do practically to help that country?

ANGOLA

Deep are the hurts of my people.
They need deep healing.
Who will lead my people to the well of healing?

Because I cannot use a wounded body.
First must come the healing of the wound.

Who will help my people find healing?

BENIN

My people- despite all the trials which your land has passed through, you have not lost my joy in your hearts.

I commend you for this - for this is your strength.

Do not now let go of my joy - hold fast to this gift.
Come into my presence with songs of joy, with an offering of worship and praise, a pure heart.

You are a fire in the land. You must continue to burn, so that those who are lost in hopelessness, despair, powerlessness, can know that there is still hope, and by your light find their way to me.

BURUNDI

Darkness has taken hold of you,
and it plans to destroy.
There is no safety or protection anywhere,
except in the blood of Jesus.

Hide yourself in the blood of Jesus, and then you will be safe.

The enemy will not triumph,
although the days are still dark.

My blood can heal the land.
My blood can cleanse and free the land.
My sacrifice for the land is complete.
The enemy will not triumph.
You are safe in me.
Hold fast.

BURKINA

I call you to be servants - servants of me , servants of each other, servants of those who do not know me.
The servant heart I value more than any other offering, because it is the heart which is closest to mine, and which I am able to use.

If I visit you, will I find this heart in you, or will I find pride, deceit, jealousy, envy ?
Examine yourselves before me, and I will show you your heart.

CAMEROON

The blood of Jesus has washed you clean.
Why do you become dirty again by sinning against me?

Look again at my cross.
Cry out to me for cleansing again and I will set you free.

Separate yourselves from the evil that is around you.
You must remain clean in my service.

Humble yourselves that I may lift you up,
for this is my desire.

CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC

The darkness around you grows darker as the enemy grows in strength.

So you must be a bright light, to give hope to my people.

How can you be a bright light
when you are unclean - when you let sinful things grow?
You must be cleansed.
Call out to me and I will wash you clean.
Then I will come to you, and you will shine like a beacon, and by your light the darkness will be exposed.

CHAD

I am setting before you a door of great service.

Meditate on my cross, and I will show you what you must do.

CHAD 2

My people are to be a shelter a shelter from the heat of the sun for those who are suffering.

For this my people you need to be gentle, for those who are suffering are in great pain.

Reach out, reach out
Be my people in the land that those who are suffering might find a place of rest

CONGO

On the cross I was broken, broken for the healing of my world.

Your Nation has been broken.
The roots of despair are deep, and hard to break.

I have compassion for your land.
You must bring the land to my cross, where my brokenness will be the healing.

But for this to happen, you need to be broken in spirit - broken by the pain of your land, broken by the waste, the hurt, the spoiling.
You must feel as I feel for the land.
You must cry as I cry for the land.

When the people of the land see this, they will turn to me.

GHANA.

Lift up your hearts my people.
See, I am coming to you, to purify, to equip, to fill with new joy, new hope, new fire.
This will be a great blessing to you, but it will also be a time of deep examination by my Spirit. Much that is hidden must be exposed, so that you may repent and be forgiven.

Do not be afraid of this, or resist my Spirit, for I need and desire to work with a pure bride.

I desire that my name be held in high honour among you, so that my name may spread far and wide, saving and healing many.

GABON

I have made you to be watchmen.

You are to stand and look out over the land, to warn the people of the danger of the enemy. Not just for your land, but for those lands around you. You must say to my people "Be on guard. Stand firm. Fight and triumph."

Beware.

The enemy will try to creep past you, to take control of the hearts and lives of people. So you must be alert, on watch, always at prayer, ready to fight for your land, and for other lands around you. I look to you to be a centre for intercession and for prayer without ceasing.

This is hard, but it will bless many,
and they will bless you.

GUINEA

You were bought with a price - my blood.

Freedom is the gift I give to you, and I want you to use this gift to set free those who are in bondage to the kingdom of darkness. This is the charge I give to you - set the prisoners free.

But first you must be free yourselves.

You cannot compromise with the darkness. It must have no part of you, and you must have no part of it.

Is this true of you - of your leaders, your husbands and fathers, your wives and daughters, of your mothers and children?

Will you let my Spirit examine you, to show up any darkness, that it may be confessed and dealt with?

Only then can you be free, and be able to lead others to freedom.

IVORY COAST

Do not despair. The way ahead may seem hard, but I am walking ahead of you, so you need not be afraid.

Humble yourselves before me. Seek me for release from bondage, from fear, from all that binds you down.

I am the one who sets people free, and I will free you so that you can continue to follow me. I will never leave you. I will use you for my purposes.

Do not be afraid to answer my call, for I am with you.

KENYA

You have not sought me as you should.
You have served me, but so much of what you have done has glorified yourself and not me.
Yet I love you with a very special love, reserved for those who are my beloved.
Now you are in danger.
Repent before me for yourself and your land, or else you will become like the lost lands of the North, and you will not be a joy to me, but you will only add to my sorrow.

Act now.
Let the fire of repentance fall.

LIBERIA

Dust and ashes have been your lot.
Tears and sorrow have washed over you

But I love you.
I have never forgotten you.
Day and night I have watched over you, caring for you as a hen cares for her chicks.
When you have been hurt, I have felt your pain.

When you have suffered, I have grieved.
Your names are written on the palms of my hands.
I know that you are poor, with little power.
But do not despair or be afraid.
I am your light, your protection, your provider. Do not be afraid of men - of their threats or their schemes.
Hold on to me and I will bless you.

MADAGASCAR

A great work has been done by my son.
he has broken down the barrier, opened wide the way - a highway to my heart.
There is nothing between me and you.

Prepare your hearts and come into my presence that I may instruct you in the way in which you should go.

bring repentant hearts and come - come now.

Kneel before me and I will visit you.
now is the appointed time for my coming.
I am ready. I have made you ready

Come - come now.

Wait on me, and my spirit will flow

MALI

How sad my people have become.
They should have been wells of joy, springs of water in the desert for the thirsty to come and drink from.

Yet my people have become sad, looking only at the dust beneath their feet. They have not seen or understood my love for them.

My people, I want to comfort you with the joy of my Holy Spirit.
Look up to me afresh.
Lift up your faces to me.
Call out to me and I will anoint you with new joy.

MAURITANIA

My light will always be with you.
Do not despair - I will never take my light from you.

The enemy pushes up against you, trying to rob you of your power, trying to sow despair, hopelessness.

Again and again he comes. He is a thief, and he seems to have great power.

Do not be afraid.
My light will show you his false ways and his lying words.
My light will show you the way in which you must walk.
Remember - my light shines in the darkness, and nothing can put it out.

You are very special to me. I know that you have little power, but I love you.

Hold on to my light, and hold my light out to those around you - those who are living in despair and deep darkness.

You will be hope to them, even as you struggle to beat off the enemy.

Remember, my light is the only hope for your land.

Trust me.

NIGER

The enemy will invade your land if he can.

He will weaken your love for me and for each other.

He will try to dry up the water of life. He will try to deny you my Holy Spirit.

He will try to rob your children of hope, of a future.

He will try to sow hatred and despair in your land.

You must rise up and overwhelm him by the blood of the cross.

Nothing else can throw him back. No one else can defeat him.

I am seeking for hearts on fire for me, people to take a stand, to challenge and equip my people.

Now is the time.

NIGERIA

“Divide and destroy!” These are the works of darkness which are taking place among you. You must stand close together. United by my love and by prayer you must destroy the works of the enemy.

No longer must each church look for it’s own interests. You must come together and cry out to me for the land, and then I can pour my Holy Spirit on you.

To do this is not easy.

The way ahead is not easy.

The enemy has grown strong and bold.

Now is the time for coming together, before it is too late.

RWANDA

You have known my sufferings.

You have been betrayed, left alone, persecuted, murdered.

Those who should have protected you have only abandoned you.

Broken and bleeding,
you are still my precious children.
You have been abandoned, but not by me.

Now as a broken people,
intercede before me
Heal the land with my blood.

SENEGAL

I love my people.
I know that they are poor, with little power.
They live and move among much darkness.
They feel their poverty, yet I love them.

My call to my people is this - take on the mantle of the servant.

My heart is moved with compassion for my people, and I will not let them go. I love them with passion, and I will never abandon them.
My people, if this is how I love you, then this is how you must love those who do not yet know me, those who dwell in the land of the shadow of death,

Have my compassion on them, and reach out for them with the love which I have for you.

Do not hold back for fear of the consequences,. Do not be afraid, for I am with you.

SIERRA LEONE

My people call to me for blessing, and I want to bless them. But first must come the preparation - the cleansing of the heart, the fire of repentance, grief for the lost state of the nation, lost in its empty ways.

You must seek me for these things, for this is the preparation I look for as I begin to bless.

Day by day, call out to me.
Do not grow weary in waiting.

My heart is ready to bless, but first I look to your hearts. Are you ready for my visitation ?

SOUTH AFRICA

As the sea washes the shore so I will wash you clean.
You have been steeped in sin but I will wash you whiter than snow.
It is my delight to restore you ,to renew you, to release you from the sin of the past.

And if I clean you, you shall be clean indeed. No one shall condemn you if I the Lord have made you clean.

When you have been purified, then I will use you to rebuild the shattered land - the broken lives, the ruined lives. Yes here in this desolate place, here in this place of bondage, of breaking, here, in the very heart of evil, even here I will use you as an instrument of my rebuilding.

You will be hope, joy, light to those who live in darkness.
Then, my cleansed and rebuilt people, I will love you, and I will dwell with you in a new and living way.

So allow my cleansing to begin. Do not fear, for I am with you. Allow me to begin now.

TOGO

I am your rock, your fortress, your stronghold, your hiding place.Nothing can shake me, nor upset my kingly rule. I am from everlasting to everlasting, I am the great I AM.

You belong to me - you are my children, my family, my sons and daughters. You are heirs of all I have.

Why do you look at your smallness, and think of your weakness? Lift up your heads.

Remember who you are - a holy people, my people.

I have not forgotten you.

UGANDA

Like a lost sheep
you have wandered, lost and lonely.

The wolf has torn you and still looks to harm.

I am the good shepheard.
I am guarding, calling, seeking, caring,
loving you.
Blessings are coming to restore all that the wolf has stolen and destroyed.

I look to you
to seek me with all your heartys, and with all your strength.

Call, and this is my promise-
I will answer.

Dem republic of the Congo

My people, you are like a mighty tree.
Strong and secure, with your roots in me, your branches spread wide,so that those who are being burned by the sun can come and find rest.

I have put great strength in you, and filled you with gifts, with love for me, and with power.

Now is the time for you to gather together and call on my power to sweep your land.

Will you do this?

It will be very costly for you.For as my Spirit falls, there will be a great need for confession and repentance.

But if you will allow this to happen, this is my promise. Your land will acknowledge me, and I will acknowledge you.

ZIMBABWE

You are in a dangerous place.
The fire of the enemy is burning strongly against you.

Do not be afraid.
When you pass through the fire, I will be with you.

But I must purify my bride. Will you allow me to do this like a faithful obedient people?
Or will you complain and murmur against me?
Will you trust me
or crucify me again?
